FACT SHEET

Overview

Designed to feel more like a private club than a hotel, each of the Library's elegantly appointed accommodations have been individually adorned with a collection of art and 25-100 books based on one distinctive topic. The topics are organized throughout the hotel based on the Dewey Decimal System, with floors dedicated to the ten major categories including The Arts, Literature, Philosophy, and Language.

Location

Located on Madison Avenue at East 41st street in the heart of Midtown Manhattan, the Library Hotel is just steps away from the New York Public Library, Bryant Park and the exquisitely renovated Grand Central Terminal. The Library is perfectly situated for either business or pleasure, being close to major offices, attractions and restaurants, while also being within walking distance to Fifth Avenue shopping, the Times Square theater district and sightseeing locations.

Public Areas

In the Reading Room guests are invited to relax with complimentary refreshments served throughout the day including a lavish continental breakfast buffet daily and a wine and cheese reception every evenings from 5pm - 8pm. Patrons are welcome to invite one visitor to join them at no additional charge. The glamorous Poetry Garden, a rooftop greenhouse sitting room with a wrap around terrace, and the cozy Writer's Den, a mahogany-paneled sitting room featuring overstuffed seating with a working fireplace and its own terrace, are located on the 14th Floor. Spectacular events in this unique space can be customized for any occasion. An Executive Inspiration Board Room with oversized windows occupies the Penthouse Floor (15th floor). The hotel also provides a Business Center with computer stations and privileges at a nearby New York Sports Club.

Madison & Vine, the hotel's first floor American Bistro and International Wine Bar serves lunch & dinner. Casually elegant, it's sure to become one of the neighborhood's most popular spots to enjoy a quick bite and a glass of wine or an exquisite meal.

Madison & Vine's savory cuisine can also be ordered as private dining for in room enjoyment.

Accommodations

Each of the Library Hotel New York City's guest room floors are dedicated to one of the ten major categories of the Dewey Decimal System*: Social Sciences, Literature, Languages, History, Math & Science, General Knowledge, Technology, Philosophy, The Arts and Religion. Personal service goes one step further as guests may request their room based on their interests such as the Literature floor, featuring subjects from Poetry to The Classics to Erotic Literature. Such intriguing room themes offered on the Math and Science floor are Astronomy and Botany. Law, Eastern Religion, Money, and New Media are also among the eclectic themes available on the room menu at The Library Hotel. Each of the sixty exquisitely appointed rooms have been individually adorned with a collection of art and books relevant to one distinctive topic within the category of the floor it belongs to. Choose your favorite or explore the unique delights of each room, one visit at a time.
